FINALLY! QUARTZ THAT REALLY LOOKS LIKE MARBLE

No sealing, no staining, no etching!

Finally a marble look-a-like that gives the real thing a run for its money! At a fraction of the cost of an actual high-end marble, this is truly the mark of an industry wide game change.

The quartz industry is expanding, with their technology quickly becoming more sophisticated. Going so far as to even mimic stone fissures, this new generation of quartz is unlike anything we've seen before.
